

Celebrate Good times!

Gratitude

I want to celebrate all that has been happening in El Alfarero this month. If you told me last month when I was writing my newsletter that this month I would be writing a joyous letter about all the good things that have been happening with the girls I am not sure I would have believed you! However, it has been a wonderful month!

I have had a real sense of God guiding and parenting the girls when we as staff have lacked wisdom. Karina and Blanca have settled in well and are building

Blanca, 13, arriving at the home for the very first time

Karina, 17, visiting her baby who is in another children's home.

each week until she is recovered enough to look after him again.

river, dancing and making (fake!) snow models.

friendships with the other girls. Karina has been given permission (by the child protection services) to visit her son

We have done fun activities together, such as playing in the

Visiting Darlin, Angela and Ninoska

I have also had the opportunity to visit the girls who were in the re-integration home but who left the programme early. It was a privilege to eat with them in their own rooms and to see them living independently. They each have struggles, but are doing well. There was a great sistership between them as we met together!

Visiting Ninoska; (from left to right) me (holding Ninoska's twin girl) Franco (Ninoska's oldest son), Alex (Darlin's son), Darlin, Angela (holding Ninoska's twin boy), Ninoska.

Thank you for your support. I would love to hear some of your news: louise_feather@hotmail.co.uk

Louise's Prayer Points

April 2013

Give Thanks!

- For Blanca and Karina settling in well
- For God helping us to staff the home, giving us wisdom when we asked for it.
- For the girls building friendships with each other
- For the workers' and volunteers' service to the ministry.
- For God's love expressed through Jesus' death on the cross and his resurrection that we celebrate at Easter!

Prayer Needs

- For continual wisdom
- For more girls to leave the streets
- For more long term staff for the homes particularly in the boys home.
- That the girls will keep growing, maturing and being positive supports to each other.
- For God's continual provision and guidance for the young people who have left the programme.